

Home Office papers, national Archives, HO 42/198

The information of Richard Owen of Manchester pawnbroker taken on oath at Manchester this 16th August 1819

Who saith that at this time (a quarter past 1'o clock) a car has arrived among the mob in the area of St Peters Church in which are Henry Hunt Knight Johnson Moorhouse and a woman sits on the dickey but does not know her name – She carries a flag and waves a white handkerchief – Examinant now considers the town to be in danger and the peace to be broken – says that the said Hunt Knight Johnson and Moorhouse are moving thereto – the crowd shouting immensely.

Sworn before Robert Fielden

Richard Owen