THE PETERLOO MASSACRE

On 16 August 1819, an estimated 60,000 people walked from across Manchester and its surrounding areas to St Peter's Field to protest having the right to vote.

Many walked especially to see a famous man called Henry Hunt speak on the need for electoral reform.

PETERLOO 2019 AN ANIMATED FILM BY RECLAIM

This animation was made by a group of young people from Greater Manchester who are passionate about everyone having the right to representation.

They see the 200 year anniversary of the Peterloo Massacre as a chance to shout about their own experience of democracy.

Whilst planning the animation, the group discussed the issues they face today, from votes for 16 year olds to education reform.

WHERE WAS PETERLOO?

Today St Peter's Field is near to where St Peter's Square is in Manchester.

The hustings would have been just outside Manchester Central
