SOURCE ANALYSIS

To analyse a source it is important to remember the NOP structure:

N = Nature - What kind of source is it?

O = Origin - When was the source made? By whom?

P = Purpose - Why was the source made?

Using this structure have a go at analysing the following sources.

THE PETERLOO MASSACRE - BACKGROUND

© Polyp Schlunke Poole, Peterloo - Witness to a massacre, 2019

In 1819 around 2% of the UK population had the right to vote and Manchester did not have its own Member of Parliament (MP).

A meeting was organised for 16 August at St Peter's Field in Manchester. The meeting was to discuss the need to change the law and allow working men the right to vote.
